ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful treatment. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302½ S. Elm St.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION.

NO GLORY IN IT.

The South Greensboro vs. Guilford College—Game a Poor One.

The South Greensboro baseball team which left here in fond hope yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Guilford College, to play the second team there, returned last night covered with dust instead of glory, and worn out and weary. When they left here they could play ball; today they "need practice." The Guilford team simply had a walk-over game of it, the score being, at the end of a game of fumbling and hard running, 27 to 18. But the Guilford boys had the advantage in that the spectators numbering about 250, many of whom were young ladies, were all on their side, and boys that are boys, can't play good ball when "guyed" by pretty girls. There was no glory in the game. As is seen from the score, running around the diamond was the chief feature. Good playing was conspicuous for its absence. It was South Greensboro's first match game and they had not before earned how good they couldn't play ball. They will practice awhile longer and then beat the Guilford team on Greensboro soil.

An Announcement.

Greensboro, N. C., April 21, '99.

I beg to announce that I have secured the Policy-Writing Agency of the Aetna Life and Accident Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn., (accident department) and will, as soon as supplies reach me, issue from the Greensboro office, Room No. 4, Katz building, accident policies which will embrace a health feature especially attractive, (these policies will be issued for accidents, only, or will combine the health feature if desired). All policy holders (accident department) can have the health feature attached to their policies, and we will attach (free of charge) a special, partial disability clause which cannot fail to attract the attention of those now insured against accidents with the company.

I have the agency (life) of the Penn Mutual, Ætna, Mutual Life of Kentucky, Travelers, Security Trust, and will be to see you.

Failing to get around to see you in time, will be glad to have you call on me in my newly fitted office, where I am prepared to do, with dispatch and neatness, stenographic and typewriting work, write contracts, do copying, etc. Stamps to accommodate.

Big Slander Case.

The slander case of State vs. Cox came up for a second time before 'Squire Eckle this morning, but was continued until the 18th instant on account of the illness of D. Schenck Jr., one of the defendant's counsel. Mr. Cox is charged with writing libelous letters about a Mr. Ward, his neighbor. There are about fifteen witnesses in the case and the crowd was so large that 'Squire Eckle moved his court to the court house, his office being too small to accommodate all the witnesses and spectators. The parties interested are from near Jamestown.

SITUATION SERIOUS AT SAMOA.

Rebels are Claiming Victory Over British and American Forces.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Wellington, N. Z., May 2—Advices from Samoa indicate that the instructions received from the powers to cease hostilities, makes the situation upon the islands very serious, as the rebels hold the main food supplies and are again near the municipality of Apia. Associated Press Correspondent Renbels thinks it is evident the home authorities have misunderstood the situation at Samoa. The Germans and rebels are already jubilant and claiming victory over the British and American forces.

POWERS' ACTION CONDEMNED.

Wellington, N. Z., May 2—Unless the rebels are made to submit, the problem remains unsolved. The white people in the outskirts of the city are at the mercy of rebels. The American vice-consul's store at Falifa was looted last week, while the German store adjoining it was left untouched British and American residents all condemn the action of the powers in ordering a cessation of hostilities at this stage. An inspection of the late battlefield shows defenses erected by the rebels, near the home of Stevenson, to be strong and well planned.

It is rumored that thirteen boats filled with armed rebels are approaching from the east. The town appears safe

THE REBEL COMMISSIONERS

Make Another Trip to See Otis and Offer Same Proposition.

GENERAL OTIS REMAINS FIRM

The Filipinos Must Yield Unconditionally Before They Will Be Granted Anything.

By Cable to the Telegram

Manila, May 2—The insurgent peace commission which left Manila Saturday with Otis' ultimatum that he would accept nothing but unconditional surrender, has returned with new propositions for a cessation of hostilities. The same two agents of Aguinaldo came into the American camp today, bearing a flag of truce, and with a renewed plea for cessation of hostilities pending a final settlement. It is believed the insurgent leaders will throw themselves upon the mercy of the Americans. Otis will meet the commissioners some time today.

THE SAME PROPOSAL.

Manila, May 2—The proposition of the insurgent commission was in effect the same as the one heretofore made by Gen. Luna, viz. that the Americans grant an armistice until the Filipinos shall have met and decided whether or not the Filipino army should surrender. Otis again declined their proposal and told Col. Arguelles that it was useless for the commissioners to return unless they come prepared to accede to the American demands. He said that the Filipinos must lay down their arms and surrender before any conditions except amnesty could be granted them The insurgent army is known to be in a bad shape, and it is believed that the next step of the leaders will be a total surrender.

TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1899.

It ain't stylish these days for one to write an editorial without saying something somewhere in its body about the "White Man's Burden." The quotation is getting to be a very great burden to the eye.

In the towns all over the State the party of good government won in yesterday's fight. Democratic mayors were elected, and boards of aldermen favorable to electric lights, water works, graded schools, and all kinds of public improvements.

Every time the Raleigh's captain opens his mouth his tongue gets him into trouble. The next time he wants to get drunk it would be a good scheme for him to weigh anchor, steam out to mid-ocean and order all hands below, while he gives vent to his feelings with no listeners but the wild waves.

Dewey Day was celebrated yesterday all over the country in a manner that shows how deep a hold on the affections of the people the old fellow has. He did his plain duty on that day a year ago, without thought of the glory he was reaping for himself and the flag. And when he comes home he will read his fame in the eyes of an adoring country.

The Old North State is getting a decided move on herself. There is absolutely no question about that fact The attention of the outside world is being centered upon her giant strides toward commercial eminence. The fact that but a short while back she was so far behind the times, and now has passed all her southern sisters in the number of cotton mills and in the total capacity of cotton goods production, is most pleasing.

There is nothing else that a girl can wear that makes her look so sweet, as a shirt waist. A shirt waist and a sailor hat is a combination that is simply out of sight. Ah, if the dear creatures only knew it. Then they wouldn't wear so much crepe de chine, moire, nainsook, taffeta, foulard, mouseline de soie, and all that sort of of stuff, nor carry so much bunting-draped tulip patch on their heads.—Charlotte Observer.

Ah, if our contemporary only knew that it were the frail creature enclosed in the combination that is out of sight.

Captain Coghlan is still defiant, though he is not saying anything. In his speech to the admiring populace yesterday from the deck of the Raleigh he refrained from touching upon the subject at everybody wanted him to touch upon, but he said one sentence that we imagine would not be hard to interpret—"You know what I think." McKinley and the navy department may close the Captain's lips but a much stronger agency will be required to kill that intense "itching" of his to take a hand in blowing the Germans out of the water.

Everybody is glad that the appearances seem propitious for an early end of at least organized resistance to the Americans in the Philippines. There will be joy in the hearts of the people when our swords are once again turned into pruning hooks, and the incident shall have passed into history and ceased to be remembered only by an occasional mother whose boy lies sleeping on that far distant shore.

"By foreign hands thy dying eyes were closed,
By foreign hands thy decent limbs composed;
By foreign hands thy humble grave adorned,
By strangers honored and by strangers mourned."

Col Julian S. Carr has offered to pay half the railroad fare of every veteran in the counties of Durham, Orange, Person, Granville, Chatham and Alamance who will attend the reunion at Charleston, S. C. Mr. Carr is certainly a grand, good man. He is a friend to North Carolina indeed.

Every worthy cause receives his support. The cost is never counted when he wishes to do the old State and her people a turn. He has a deep love for North Carolina, probably stronger than burns in the breast of any other of her sons. He is a friend to education, a friend to struggling youth, a true friend to everything that has for its purpose the bringing to the front in all lines the old North State. He is a philanthropist, indeed.

The Manufacturers' Record has the following to say of hustling Charlotte:

"Ten years ago Charlotte, N. C., had a population of about 10,000 and one cotton mill. Today its population is more than 28,000 and its twelve cotton mills are running day and night in the manufacturing of cotton yarns, gray clothes, ginghams, toweling, webbing, sash cord, hosiery, batting and wadding. and its five clothing factories are utilizing every hour of daylight to keep up with orders. These factories are the direct result of cotton mills, while as an auxiliary feature of textile life there are four firms which contract to design, build and equip cotton mills complete, and which are kept busy, while the five machinery and supply houses are shipping goods every day."

We congratulate our neighbor city that she has got the start of other cities of the state and bears the palm of commercial activity alone. The growth of Charlotte has indeed been phenomenal, and ere long she must be a formidable rival of Atlanta.

Fine Record on the Ball Field This Year—Commencement.

The baseball season for Oak Ridge closed last Friday with the second victory over A. and M. College. The record of Oak Ridge is one that the school is proud of. Of the eleven games scheduled Oak Ridge won eight, lost two, and one (with Cornell) was prevented by rain. The following is a resume of the victories and defeats:

GAMES WON.

|---|---|
| Bingham School | 14 to 0 |
| Guilford College, first game | 7 to 6 |
| " " second game | 21 to 3 |
| Horner's School | 5 to 4 |
| Wake Forest, second game | 10 to 1 |
| A. & M., first game | 4 to 2 |
| A. & M., second game | 5 to 1 |

GAMES LOST.

|---|---|
| U. N. C | 11 to 0 |
| Wake Forest, first game | 5 to 4 |

This puts Oak Ridge second only to the University in the school teams of the state, and gives her the championship of the schools and colleges in baseball, as well as football, for the year. All games have been entirely free from bickerings and unpleasantness. Not a decision of the umpire has been disputed during the season, and the utmost good feeling has been the feature of the athletic contests on every ground, abroad and at home.

The winning of the championship of schools at the "Track Athletic Meet" at Chapel Hill Saturday last was the crowing event in a year of victories on the athletic field. Oak Ridge Institute got the banner, and Carter, of her team, carried off the cup as the best athlete.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

Names of Litigants.

In an old Indiana case a man named Shallcross undertook to live up to his name by running an unlawful ferry, but the decision of the court said to him, "You shall not cross."

The name of an adopted citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, whose adoption was canceled and who was thereupon expelled, was Run Hannah.

A California woman who said in her will, "I have no fear of the hereafter: O my Lord, teach me to live right, then in dying there is no sting," bore the prophetic Christian name of Euthanasia.

The name Dr. Physick, which might be looked for in some allegory, appears as the name of a real person in a recent law report.

Some peculiarly suggestive combinations of names in the titles of cases are these: People versus Kaiser. Priest versus Lackey. Kick versus Merry. Protected Home Circle versus Winter. Grant versus Lockout Mountain Company.

In reminiscences of the early Minnesota bar Judge Charles E. Flandrau tells in the Minnesota Law Journal of an argument before the supreme court in 1853 by ex-Chief Justice Goodrich on behalf of an Indian convicted of murder. The Indian's name was Zu-ai-za, but as the counsel could not pronounce it he always referred to him in his argument as "my client. Ahasuerus."—Case and Comment.

The Irrepressible Small Boy.

This is a true story, and it really happened in a New York family. It looks as if it might be an old story brought up to date or renovated for the occasion, but it is exactly as the small boy arranged it and not to the edification of his family. The small boy was very fond of ice cream. It never cloyed his palate. It was with the same delight that he saw it each time brought on the table, and upon each of these times he showed the exuberance of his feelings by crying in rapturous tones: "Oh-o-o! Ice cream! Ice cream! Ice cream!" much to his mamma's annoyance.

"People will think we never have ice cream or anything else to eat," she said to her son one day. "Now, we are going to have company to dinner tonight, and I don't want you to say a word when the ice cream is brought on." The small boy promised. He really was a good little boy, and he intended to mind. But when the cream was brought on the old feeling of rapture was so strong that he forgot entirely and cried out as usual. Then he remembered and stopped short, looking very repentant. He had not intended to call out, and his mother was mortified. He changed his tone entirely:

"We have ice cream almost every night," he remarked carelessly.—New York Times.

Painfully Polite.

The people of Dresden are very polite, so overpolite that they not infrequently bring down ridicule upon themselves. It used to be told in that city that a stranger was one day crossing the great bridge that spans the Elbe and asked a native to direct him to a certain church which he wished to find.

"Really, my dear sir," said the Dresdener, bowing low, "I grieve greatly to say it, but I cannot tell you."

The stranger passed on, a little surprised at this voluble answer to a simple question. He had proceeded but a short distance when he heard hurried footsteps behind him, and, turning round, saw the same man running to catch up with him.

In a moment his pursuer was by his side, his breath nearly gone, but enough left to say hurriedly: "My dear sir, you asked me how you could find the church, and it pained me to have to say that I did not know. Just now I met my brother, but I grieve to say that he did not know either."

Her Opinion in Full.

The car turned sharply around a curve and the tall man who was holding on to a strap somewhat loosely was suddenly thrown from his upright position with a force that landed him in the lap of a dignified dowager sitting near him, while his high silk hat flew from his head and rolled down the aisle of the car.

"Sir," she said as he rose to his feet again with profuse apologies, "I am compelled to say that in my judgment you were lacking in that complete grasp of the strap which was essential to the highest efficiency in maintaining an upright attitude when turning a curve."

That was all. But it crushed him.—Chicago Tribune.

As He Understands It.

"As I understand it," remarked the intelligent foreigner, "you Americans regard George Washington's hatchet as the emblem of truth."

"Yes, sir, that's right," replied the American proudly.

"Then, when statesmen or other individuals who have quarreled, bury the hatchet, I suppose they cease to speak the truth?"—Detroit Free Press.

Inspiring Hope.

The Doctor—Bear up. I must tell you the worst—you can't possibly recover.

The Client—That's a pity, for if I'd lived a bit longer I should have come into a fortune; as it is, I haven't a penny to pay you with, doctor.

The Doctor—Well, now, don't give up hope. We'll try to mend you. We'll try.—Illustrated Bits.

Not Mentioned.

"Everybody seems to have been mentioned for the office except you," observed the sympathizing friend.

"Yes," replied the disappointed politician. "My name is Panta."

"Then, of course," soothingly rejoined the other, "you might expect to be among the unmentionables."

And silence like a poultice fell.—Chicago Tribune.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.

In Gattis-Kilgo Case, and An Appeal Taken.

Oxford, N. C., May 1—The demurrer in the Gattis-Kilgo slander case was sustained this afternoon and appeal was taken to the Supreme court. Argument was only finished today. It will be remembered that defendants demurred to being sued jointly and claimed that they could only be sued separately. That was the only point ruled on. The case will hardly come up for a hearing on its merits before a jury, earlier than the January term of court. Mr. Gattis and his son were present at the hearing, the defendants appearing by counsel

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

If delays are dangerous lawyers must be a brave lot.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Brass and Iron Bed Steads.

How many persons realize that in a small bedroom a Brass or Iron Bed does not seem more than two-thirds as large as a wooden one of the same size. Here is one great cause for the popularity of brass and iron beds. Then, too,

They Are So Airy and Open

that they afford much better ventilation. They do not enclose the sleeper with wooden walls, shutting off all circulation of air, but there is an open frame giving the utmost ventilation. All the world knows their intrinsic cleanliness. They are as neat as wax, as clean as snow. If properly lacquered they will retain their high lustre for years.

OUR DEBT TO SPAIN.

Cambon Gives Hay a Receipt for the $20,000,000.

Washington, May 1—The last move in the negotiations terminating the war with Spain occurred today when Secretary Hay paid to the French Ambassador, M. Cambon, the $20,000,000 provided by the treaty of peace for the cession of the Philippines. The payment was made in four treasury warrants of $5,000,000 each, and was receipted for by M. Cambon as completely liquidating the obligation of the United States in this connection. The Ambassador deposited the $200,000 in the Riggs National Bank of this city, and the cashing of the warrants is expected to be made later through the City National Bank of New York.

The Spanish Government was notified by cable to the payment, but nothing will be done as to the forwarding the funds to Europe until Spain directs the exact course to be pursued.

Cleveland, O., wants the next national encampment of the grand army of the republic.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

THEY DESPOIL HIS CHURCH.

And Threaten Dr. Broughton With His Life.

Atlanta, Ga., May 1—The Baptist tabernacle, at the corner of Harris and Luckie streets, presided over by Rev. L. G. Broughton, was broken into some time during last night and considerably damaged. A door leading into the Sunday school room from an alley was wrenched from its hinges, a large tank in a toilet room torn from its fastenings, water ran over the floor soiling the carpets, and paint was smeared on the floor and walls. Several chairs and a table were broken and piled in a heap. Placards were found nailed to the building bearing various sentiments regarding Dr. Broughton's stand against the Newnan affair.

The night of the Hose burning, Dr. Broughton denounced the mob as murderers. Last week he received several pieces of Hose's flesh accompanied by threatening letters, and last night he replied to the senders of missives, calling them cowards. The Tabernacle is a new edifice and was dedicated but recently.

The plumbers who were called to repair the damage done to pipes, say the trouble may have been caused by the giving way of the tank, but this Dr. Broughton scouts.

"Vandals did it," said Dr. Broughton. "They broke open the door which leads from the alley into the primary department. They wrenched the door of the ladies' lavatory from its hinges, broke down the tank, took out the lead pipes and allowed the water to run all night over the floor, walls and blackboards.

"It was done by the same gang that has been sending me notes of threatening character for the past week or so. I preached a sermon last night in which I reiterated my position and remarks which were made in a former sermon. In that sermon I stated I was not afraid of all the devils in Hell, and I still stick to what I have said."

Dr. Broughton said he would not ask for police protection nor would he order the janitor to sleep in the church as a precautionary measure. The police today found additional placards posted in different places on adjoining streets bearing the sentiments: "What do you think of Broughton? I think he ought to be whipped. Who will join a crowd to whip Broughton, the negro-lover?"

SEEKS A REMEDY FOR LYNCHINGS.

Atlanta, Ga., May 1—A State convention which shall have for its mission the discussing of rape and lynchings, and whose object shall be to find a remedy for existing conditions, will probably be called to meet in Atlanta as soon as delegates can be selected from the various counties of the State.

This movement at first coming only as a suggestion, has found sufficient backing and sentiment to cause it to assume the proportions necessary for its success, and it is said, there is no doubt that the convention will be held and every county in the State represented in the interest of the recent lynchings. The convention will not meet for the purpose of condoning the crime or censuring the work of outraged citizens who deal out summary punishment to the assailant, but its purpose will be to suggest such changes in the present law as to make it possible for indictment, trial and execution of the guilty to follow in such rapid succession the commission of the crime as to make it impossible for any delay to swell the indignation of the people to that point of frenzy which generates violence and death to the man who is responsible for the crime.

Judge George Hilyer, a prominent lawyer and large property owner, is taking an active part in the matter. He will ask, probably, Governor Candler to appoint delegates in a few days, but the date for the convention has not been decided.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

The appeal of the old agricultural board in the suit of the new against the old board comes up before the supreme court today for argument by counsel.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Dangers of Filters.

Filters for purifying water are of many kinds in their mechanical structure, but, according to the report of the Maryland state board of health, it would appear that such filters may steadily lose efficiency until they become first class culture beds for bacteria. In evidence of this position an example cited is that of a man in Baltimore who sends the whole water supply of his house through a large filter and subsequently puts his drinking water through one of the small domestic filters common in the market.

A test of this arrangement showed that on a day when the city taps were running 510 bacteria to the cubic centimeter the large filter was delivering some 9,900 bacteria in the same water. When the large filter was repacked, only 9 bacteria per centimeter got through it, though this same water when passed through the small filter came out with 71 bacteria per centimeter.

This aspect of the matter is still further strengthened by another example, a case where a filter supposed to be the best in the market was in use. The effectiveness of this filter was so short lived that the precaution was observed of boiling the water after it was filtered.

What He Didn't Know.

"They say that ex-Mayor Latrobe went to some sort of a celebration given by the Ebenezer colored church down on Montgomery street," said a man about town. "He was asked to speak and of course complied in his usual style. 'You have named this church after a great man,' he said, 'and I hope you will try to emulate his example. He was a man who couldn't be led astray by any one and believed his first duty was to God and then to his fellow man. He was a'— Well, I don't know what all he didn't say about that fellow Ebenezer, but anyhow he noticed for some reason or other his address wasn't as tumultuously received as usual, and as he drove away after the meeting behind Old Liz he was humming the old hymn 'Here I Raise My Ebenezer' and trying to figure the matter out. When he got home, he asked a good Christian lady, who happened to be there on a visit, who Ebenezer was.

"'Why, you goose,' said she, 'Ebenezer wasn't a man. Ebenezer means a stone. Didn't you know that?

"Now when General Latrobe addresses a church audience he carries a pocket Bible dictionary with him."—Baltimore News.

Fun For the Shah.

During the winter months the little colony of 60 or 70 English people at Teheran organize concerts for one another's amusement. There is a dance now and then at the legation, and when the weather is cold of course there is skating. Skating is the greatest marvel of all to the Persians. Some years ago the late shah, Nasr-i-Din, saw 20 skaters twirling and curling and spinning gracefully on the ice. He was amused. He thought it wonderful. The next day he sent to the legation and borrowed a dozen pairs of the skates. These he made his ministers put on and attempt to skate on the lake in the palace grounds. The poor ministers were terribly discomfited, but it was twice as much as their heads were worth to refuse. His majesty was more amused than ever, and he nearly had an apoplectic fit from laughing.

Human Heaters.

In considering the problem of heating the large department stores which are now to be found in nearly every big city it is very well worth taking into account the animal heat distributed by the many customers who come into such establishments. That this is considerable is evidenced by the experience of at least one engineer, who, in one such case, found that after 9:30 a. m. on a day in midwinter, with the thermometer at the freezing point, no other heat was needed to keep the place warm. This fact, however, emphasizes as well the great need of a good system of ventilation in such buildings, as without it the air would soon become vitiated much beyond any reasonably permissible degree.—Cassier's Magazine.

Icehouse Fires.

Curiously, an icehouse is the most likely place in the world for a fire. Insurance rates are so high on ice sheds as to be almost prohibitive of any policies being taken out. Spontaneous combustion is responsible for the fires in ice sheds, according to some authorities. When a layer of ice is melted around the top and sides in summer, an immense amount of heat is set free. When conditions are exactly favorable, spontaneous combustion takes place. Others believe that a zone of warmth and moisture is created by the melting ice and that this attracts lightning. In any case an icehouse is a beautiful place for a fire.

Rather Close.

"The stingiest man I ever knew was a fellow who in going up stairs always skipped a step in order to save his shoe leather."

"That's nothing! I once knew a man who was so stingy that he wouldn't trim his finger nails except when he could borrow a jackknife, because he didn't want to wear out his own."—Chicago News.

At Auction

Monday, May 8, 1899,
At 2:30 O'Clock p. m.

Beautiful Residence Lots, Desirable Land for Truck Farms, Gardens and Fruit Farms. A rare opportunity to secure a tract of land in size and location to suit you, and within the capacity of your pocketbook.

We will offer at public auction at 2:30 o'clock p. m., on Monday, May 8, 1899, a limited number of choice lots in what is known as the Vanbokelin Farm. This body of land lies just north of town and is partly within the city limits of Greensboro. The lots we will offer vary in size from ¼ acre to 10 acres each and will be sold on terms as follows; Cash or one-third cash, one-third in six months and one-third in twelve months, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum on deferred payments.

The sale will begin promptly and the property will be sold rapidly and on its merits and there will be no bybids. Purchasers will be expected to take their purchases according to the above conditions.

This land, which lies just three-quarters of a mile by road from the court house and is traversed by the fine road recently built to the battle ground, and also by Park Avenue, which has been rendered available by the construction of a substantial wagon bridge across Buffalo creek offers very choice and convenient locations for those who desire a larger lot than can be had for a small investment in the city, and yet be within fifteen minutes walk of their business. These lots are on high land, well drained and command a better view of the city than any other location near town affords. Those who wish to live in town and have a small farm outside should not miss this opportunity as there is no other land so convenient to be offered in this vicinity.

The large blast furnace so long idle has now started with all indications of a prosperous career. This fact, in connection with other contemplated improvements, insures a bright future for this section of Greensboro, and as land here must soon increase rapidly in value, our sale presents a splendid opportunity for the man of small means to secure a profitable investment.

There will be no brass band or speech making at this sale. It will be strictly a business transaction and we want you to come out and buy a lot—it will surely make you a profit—but if you don't want to buy, come out any way and pick spring flowers, breathe the balmy air, see the smoke of prosperity roll out of the stack of the blast furnace and hear the hum of the busy machinery at the finishing mill.

Hacks will leave the court house square for the sale at 1:30 p. m., and all who desire to do so may ride out free of charge.

Further information and plats of the property may be had of

JORDAN, SINCLAIR & M'DONALD
or W. R. LAND.

DON'T FORGET that real estate is the basis of all wealth, and that increasing population causes enhancement in land values. Remember that Greensboro is growing fast and that land cannot be bought next year for what is asked for it now. Don't fool away your opportunities.
